

In regard to Proceeding 04-160, please record my dissenting voice.
I enjoy the programming XM radio provides; were it otherwise, I wouldn't pay for the service. I choose not to listen to local radio because I find it lacking in imagination and quality, and limited in coverage area. XM radio provides those things and more; a ruling in the NABs favor would limit their ability to provide me with the programming I pay for.